

Please do not reverse the "do not Call" list rule. It makes a big difference. When one is eating or doesn't feel well, these calls are more than annoying, they are upsetting. Elders need peace, people with illnesses need peace. Families need peace. Some callers still get through, but not many. Thanks